June's Cellar Folk Club

What a great night! Last month at the Cellar Folk Club saw 19 of the 33 people who attended perform. Poetry, solo's duet's a trio and a seven piece instrumental. Who could ask for more? All live, all unplugged. Just to top the night off I went and won the raffle and picked up that CD of Vin Garbutt I've had my eye on for months, called 'PLUGGED' and it's great too.

Lisa auctioned off some bottles of the red stuff to raise money for Stinky Creek World Food and Music Fair. We will probably have more auctions in the coming months.

If you weren't there make sure you don't miss July's Cellar Folk Club as we reach that milestone of 15 years, it promises to be a great night too.

See you there,
Paul.

HERITAGE SPOT

Ron has suggested we start up a heritage spot as a regular section on the night. This can include music as well as art/craft or demonstrations that represents the diverse backgrounds of Australia and its allied peoples. Suggestions will be appreciated and can be forwarded to Ron or myself. We will conduct this session during the early part of the evening.

AGM 2009 AUGUST 8th 2009
